

Text LB S. 92-93 narrator`s perspective/point of view

Durcharbeiten und aufschreiben LB S. 204 narrator + point of view, lernen

Zusatzinformation durcharbeiten und lernen

first-person narrator: character in the story, if main character then protagonist narrator; refers to herself or himself with first person pronouns like I, we, my ...

third-person narrator: not a character in the story, refers to the characters in the story with third-person pronouns like he, she, they, his ...

limited narrator: does not know/ does not tell everything about the story; characters, action (emotions, thoughts, ...)

omniscient narrator: knows/ tells everything about the story, characters, action (emotions thoughts ...)

selective omniscient narrator: knows everything about one character/aspect of the story, but not everything about everybody, therefore finally limited objective/neutral/impartial narrator: does not give his own opinion (neither directly nor indirectly), does not make personal comments subjective narrator: gives his opinion directly or indirectly, shows sympathy for a character, even can give personal comments

Language advice: The story is told from the first-person point of view/ narrative perspective.
But: The story is told by a first-person narrator.

Aufgabe

Analyze/ Explain the narrative perspective the story is told from. Write a coherent text.

Die folgenden Aspekte sollten in deinem Lösungstext enthalten sein, einschließlich entsprechender Zeilenangaben, um Textbezug herzustellen:

- third-person point of view – refers to the characters with she or he, narrator is not a character of the story
- limited point of view or selective omniscient – knows a lot about the young woman – her thoughts, feelings, inner fight, life..., but not a lot about the father or the young salesman ...
- objective: is close to the young woman, but finally it is not clear if the narrator has more empathy for the young woman or the father, just tells us the story and we as the readers have to make up our minds on our own