

Dear students,

at first I want to thank all the students who sent me their works in time.

Now to the next tasks for your last lessons on Thursday and Friday before our holidays start.

Firstly, go to page 43 in your student's book. This time you get to know about conversation as a vanishing skill. It is a question the text will answer. Then after reading, work at the tasks at p. 44, number 1a, number 2, 3 a OR b, and in the end do nr. 4.

I know it is not very interesting to always work on your own: reading – writing. Discussions are closer to life, but see it as a good preparation for your final exams in 2 years 😊.

Never forget: there will be mails again for some chosen students to hand their works in.

For problems send me a message to my email address.

I wish you great success and, of course, nice holidays to relax a bit.

With kind regards, yours Mrs Leschniewski.
