

Dear students,

here is the next exercise in dealing with short stories.

Read the story and again answer the questions:

1. Give evidence that the given story is a short one.
2. Characterize Fritz.
3. Analyse the narrative perspective.
4. What Kind of ending do you see here?

On next Thursday you will receive all solutions of the first story. Do not forget to ask questions when there are problems.

Meet you then, yours Mrs Leschniewski.
