

Dear students of 10c,

you probably could get along well with Alex' story and all the tasks referring to it.

Let us finish working at literature with a last exercise. It is important because there will definitely be such tasks in your final exams!

Today work through another part of the "Midnight driver " pp. 34-35. Then work hard at number 1 and 2 on p. 35.

Afterwards choose between 3 and C. Here it is about diary entries (keep to the rules!!) or a possible ending for the story (the creative ones among you will enjoy it!)

At the end count your words of the last task.

That's it, kind regards from Mrs Leschniewski.
