

Dear class 6a,

have you done your texts in time? Most of you - YES.

Have you written good sentences? Many of you - YES.

Have you asked me any questions? Most of you - NO.

Thank you for the texts, we are going to speak about them directly when we are back at school.

Anhand meiner Fragen merkt ihr schon, heute geht es um present perfect and questions, aber auch um ein paar kleine Lämmchen...

Today we go on with our kids who are now in Tavistock at Lucy's grandparents.

1. Read the story p. 72 "The lambs in the barn" aloud twice (2x). Try it in different voices for different people. (You may also LISTEN to the audio file.)
2. Test yourself if you have understood everything right:
do nr.2, p.72
(Write complete sentences.)
3. Now answer my questions:
 - a) What day of the week is it?
 - b) What has grandpa made for breakfast?
 - c) Why doesn't Lucy want to go to Tavistock Abbey?
 - d) Why can't sheep's lambs live out on the moor?
 - e) Why does Lucy ask Maya for help with the hay?
 - f) Why does Maya want to take photos?

Have you done everything??

Ok, let's go on.

Find three questions in the text in present perfect

(you know: have + past participle).

How are they formed?? Take them into your folders.

Look: I have made breakfast for the girls.

Have you made breakfast for the girls?

It is easy to form questions from answers.
Copy my overview into your grammar section.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS IN PRESENT PERFECT

	Have	you	seen	our lambs	yet?
	Have	you	ever	tried	sheep's milk?
Why	hasn't	Maya	closed	the door?

Question	have/has(n't)	+ subject	+ past participle	... ?
Word			(3rd form)

Zeitangaben wie ever / already (jemals / schon, bereits) stehen VORM Partizip, yet / before (schon / zuvor) AM ENDE.

Achtung! Im present perfect gibt es kein WHEN, da der Zeitpunkt NICHT WICHTIG ist, nur das Resultat - ihr erinnert euch (??)

(Bei WHEN » simple past)

Nun üben wir.

Wb p. 45, nr.8, 9

Viel Erfolg wünscht euch Mrs Leschniewski.
