Gwen:

This afternoon we went to a football game at Anfield. Liverpool played Chelsea and it was a great game.

We went to the stadium to watch the game with Grace and Charlie, our new friends from Liverpool, who had Tickets for us. They arrived a bit late, so we were very nervous until we saw them. Before the game we all sang a song in the stadium. It was so exciting. All the people in the stadium sang together – like a very big choir! Then the game started and both team were quite good. We cheered for Liverpool. Suddenly Oscar from the Chealsea team scored the first goal and we were shocked, but Gareth was happy. He obviously doesn't know much about football. The second half of the game was much better. Liverpool scored twice and won the game, so we were very happy!

Thanks to Grace and Cahrlie, and to Liverpool FC for this graet afternoon!
