Hello. That is the last week before the school holidays.

After the impressions of Ireland we spoke about last time, let's see Lewis's trip now. We know Lewis is from Edinburgh. He is visiting his Aunt und his Uncle in Belfast ...

Lösung (not for the group at home this week. We did these exercises already at school last week).

Also Lösung im Plenum, SB, nr. 2, S. 64 ...

Revision: Modal verbs: Workbook, S. 48, nr. 5 (a, b)

Lernstoff zum 24.03.2021

Text: „Belfast and the northern coast“

-What can you see in the picture? In stories, Giants are very large and strong people. A Causeway is a way or a path across water, like a bridge. There seems to be a story behind this attraction. Let's find more about it in this text.

- Read the first part of the text (up to line 13) and find out what Lewis and his Aunt and Uncle are talking about.

- Read the text again carefully and find the sentences which help you understand what kind of person Lewis is. Copy the sentences and say which adjectives fit (sich eignen).

- Wir setzen die „Revision“ der Modal verbs fort, und zwar mixed modal verbs in present, past and future. Take your workbook on page 51, nr. 10
