

Tasks:

1. Name the definitions of Terrorism given in the text and explain the difference between them.

2. Comment on the following quote with regard to the given definitions:

Former Secretary of Defense and CIA Director Leon Panetta said he's glad that former President Bush called out domestic terrorism in his speech at the Flight 93 memorial today:

"I think just as 9/11 was a wake-up call to foreign terrorism and the threat from foreign terrorism [...] And the reality is that a terrorist is a terrorist, whether that terrorist is abroad or whether that terrorist is here at home. And this country has to recognize that we have a responsibility to protect ourselves from attacks from terrorists, whether they're here or whether they're in Afghanistan or elsewhere"

(excerpt from CNN; https://edition.cnn.com/us/live-news/9-11-attacks-20th-anniversary/h_d7b451c8943504d01c8c64f017826db5, opened 11th March 2022)

3. During your studies, you are part of a group writing a blog about the events of the 9/11 attacks. You are supposed to write a blog entry describing and explaining in how far the attacks were a terrorist act. Write at least 250 words.